

The LULZ starship

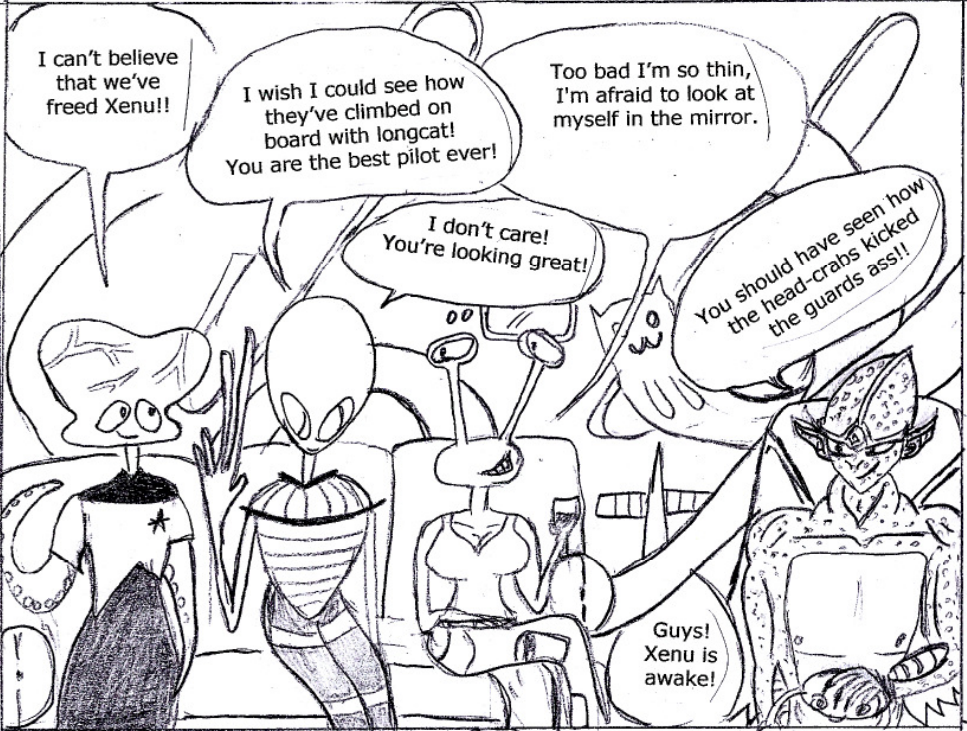

The story of the LULZ starship

I can't believe that we've freed Xenu!!

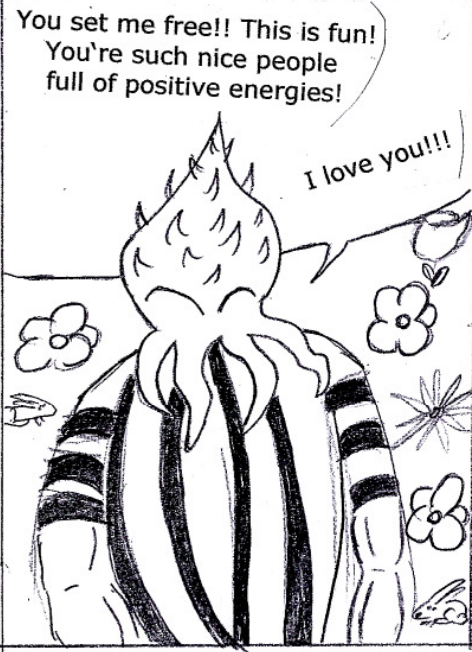

I wish I could see how they've climbed on board with longcat! You are the best pilot ever!

Too bad I'm so thin, I'm afraid to look at myself in the mirror.

I don't care! You're looking great!

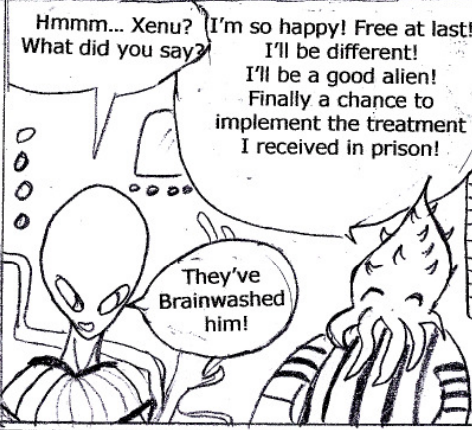

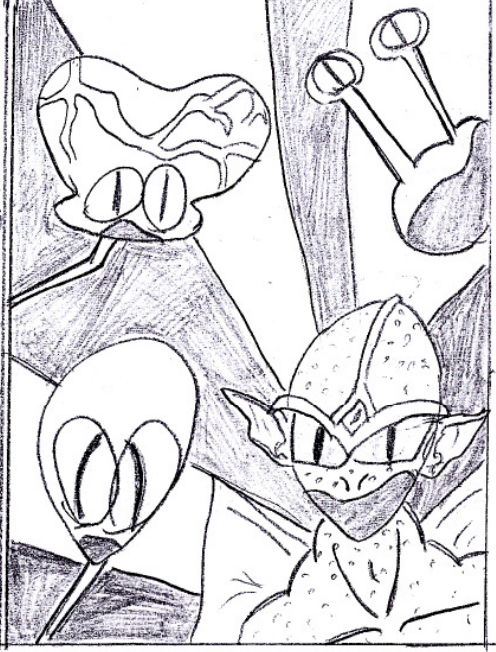

You should have seen how the head-crabs kicked the guards ass!!

Guys! Xenu is awake!

You set me free!! This is fun! You're such nice people full of positive energies!

I love you!!!

Hmmm... Xenu? What did you say?

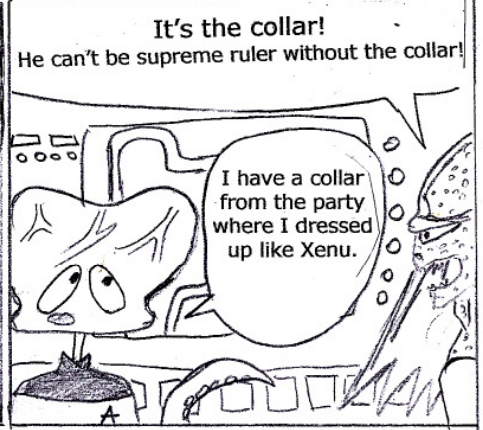

I'm so happy! Free at last! I'll be different! I'll be a good alien! Finally a chance to implement the treatment I received in prison!

They've Brainwashed him!

So stop babbling and bring it! What are you waiting for??!?!?

Oh! What a beautiful morning! Oh! What a beautiful day! :3

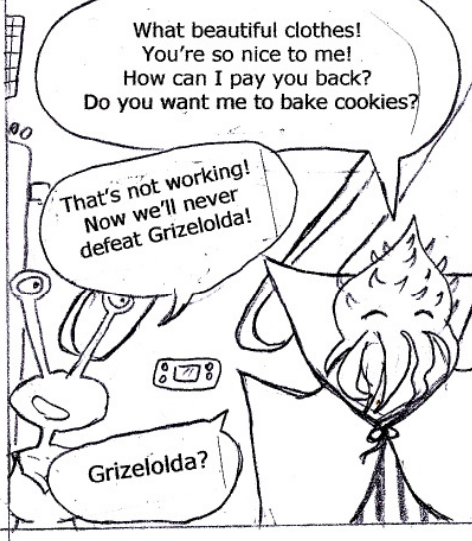

It's the collar! He can't be supreme ruler without the collar!

I have a collar from the party where I dressed up like Xenu.

Ok, ok I'll bring it! Gee, why are you so aggressive with me?

Aww... what will cheer you up?

What beautiful clothes! You're so nice to me! How can I pay you back? Do you want me to bake cookies?

That's not working! Now we'll never defeat Grizelolda!

Grizelolda?

They've released WHO??!?!?!??

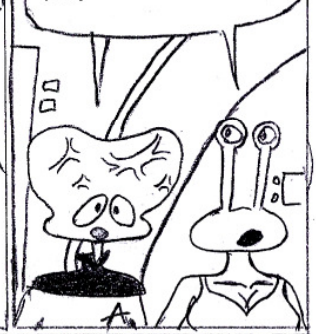

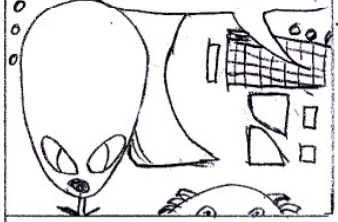

Xenu was our only hope!
Without him we're helpless against Grizelolda!

You thought you were a bad dictator,
you have no idea
what Grizelolda is doing!

There's no need to imprison people for them to be slaves

They're doing it willingly.

Who is that Grizelolda?
Does she like to sing?

Of course there's the elections,
but there's no chance that she won't be elected.

The LULZ
starship!

Come on, Lolo! Think!
How do we cure Xenu?
You're the alien with the big brain!

Nyan cat, long cat,
head crabs...

This is had to be an operation of...

I'm only 74 years old!
I'm not some over 9,000 years old developed brain champion!

I'll try to break into the computers at the prison and see which drugs they gave him.

Xenu,
you have to listen to us!
Grizelolda is dominates the galaxy!
We need you!

Maybe we'll try to explain to Xenu what's the problem with Grizelolda!

They gave me nothing!

Drugs are bad.

Only Natural

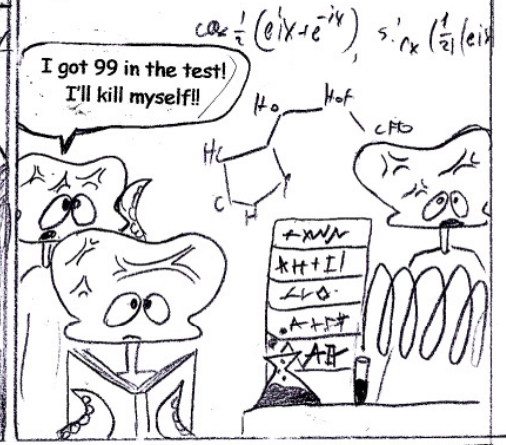

Medicine!

Let's try... to sing her a song!

I worked for the same company for years.
It's not enough to work hard, if you don't have a car like everyone else (but a better one than the neighbors), if you don't have a house with a garden they suspect you're not serious enough. Must compete in every area, and if they fire you it's so difficult to find another job.

I was under a lot of pressure all my life.
We had to study all the time. Your grades must be great or you have no chance of being accepted, and there is no second chance. All we wanted in life was "success", we aren't supposed to have veins on our head, it's just from the stress.

All my life I've suffered from low self-esteem. All women worship an impossibly fat beauty model. Women need to buy moar food than they really need, and it's also not healthy. All the newspapers are owned by Grizelolda and write that it's healthy to be so fat.

And I fought to free all those slaves from the most unexpected place - my mother's basement.

Find anything about the drugs??

Lola, do you know that only you and I came from planets that have males and females?

Intergalactic war lord, remember?

Locolo is not a male?

No, they lay eggs.

You're so nice! Let's sing!

It must be a bummer for you that the only female here is so thin, ha ha...

There is nothing wrong with being thin! We need to defeat that wrong fat body image!

If you want to catch lulz activists you have to learn to think like them. They'll try to hide Xenu in the Chan star system.

The Chan system?! Few ships come out of there alive!

We'll buy the local newspapers, write all about the "dangerous terrorists" - the Lulzship. We'll buy some factories, open some Mgilans restaurants. Sell our regular products on discount, the Chan people will love us and hate the lulz!

You're so cute. But I prefer females. Not only thin, but also a lesbian.

Am...

I'm a female too!!! This is how females on our planet look like!

Really?? Cool!! I had no idea there was another female here!

Marvelous! can you call Lolo for a sec?

Published online all the negative information you can find on them. If you can't find - make it up!

Your highness is smarter than any big-brain alien!

And another thing

Yes, her supremeness?

You told her that you're a... WHAT? What if she'll Groovle the name of your planet? I saw you lying to grls before but this??

It just happened! I don't know what I was thinking!

You've got to help me! Perform a sex-change operation on me!!!

I have a new girlfriend!

How?

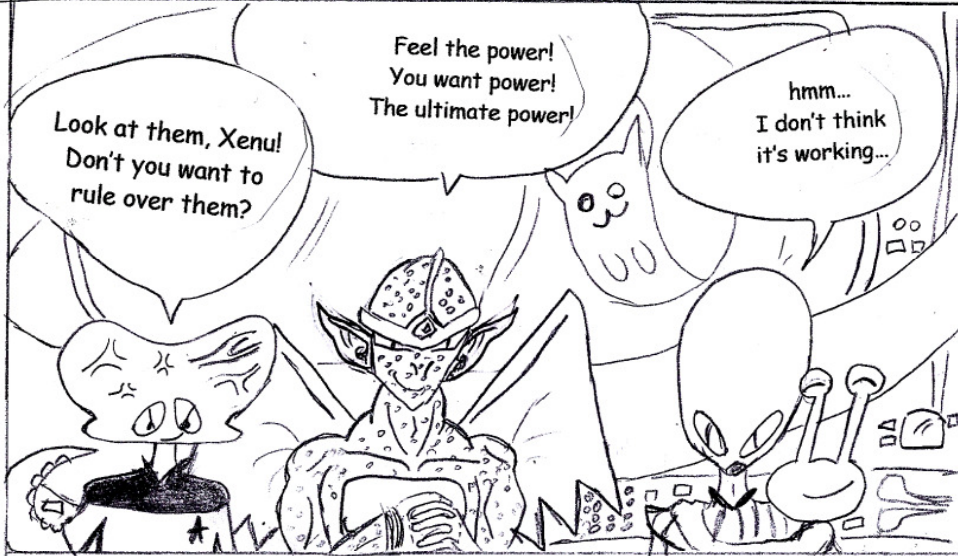

Crab Food

We'll stop making head-crab food in the entire sector. (and fire a lot of workers) leave only one place that sells them. We'll catch the lulz there!

I suggest that we'll try to find the nyancat trail that follows the lulzship.

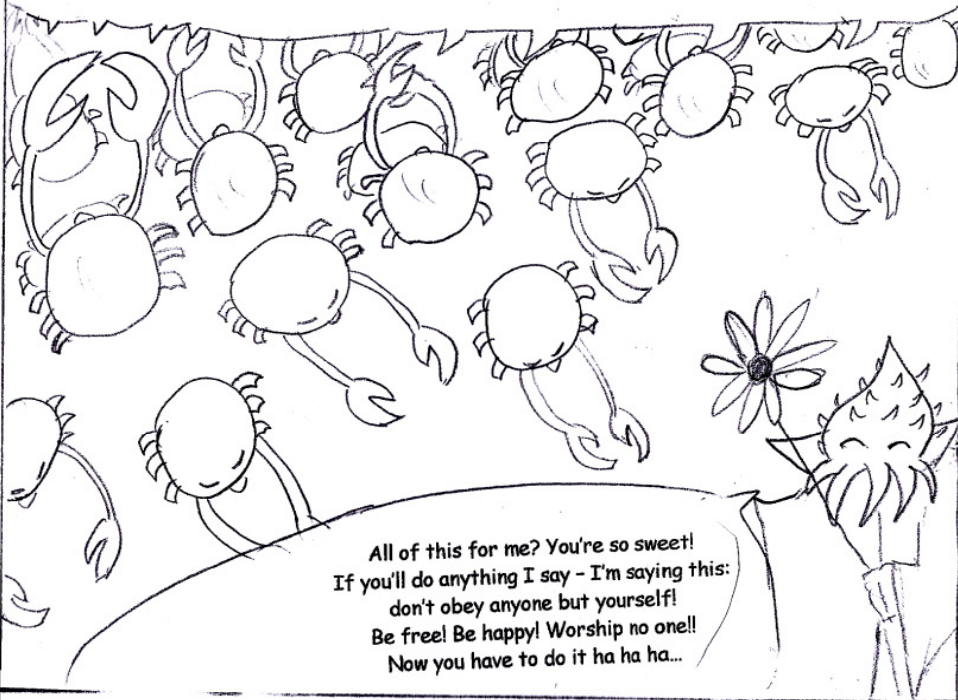

We'll get them!

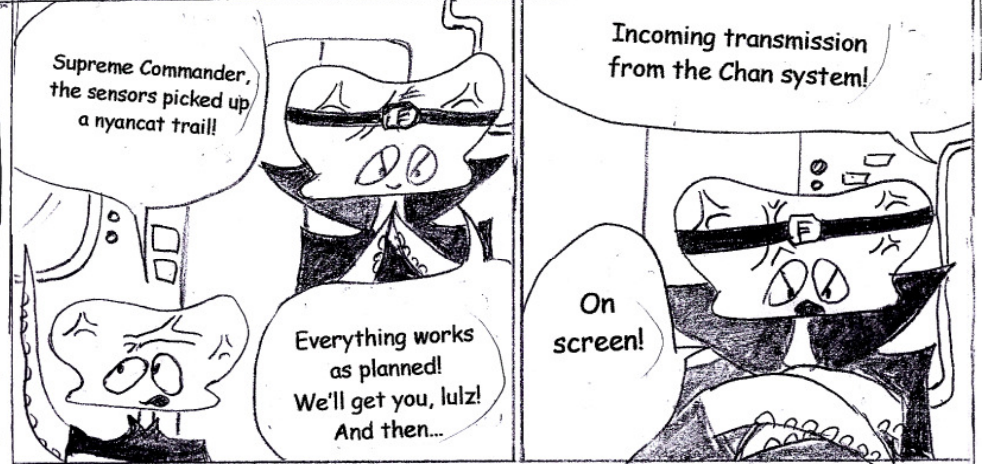

All hail Xenu!!! We' worship you!

We'll do anything you'll say!!!

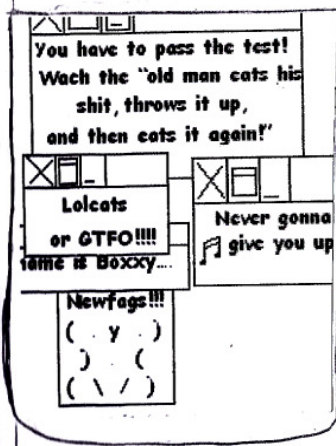

All of this for me? You're so sweet!
If you'll do anything I say - I'm saying this:
don't obey anyone but yourself!
Be free! Be happy! Worship no one!
Now you have to do it ha ha ha...

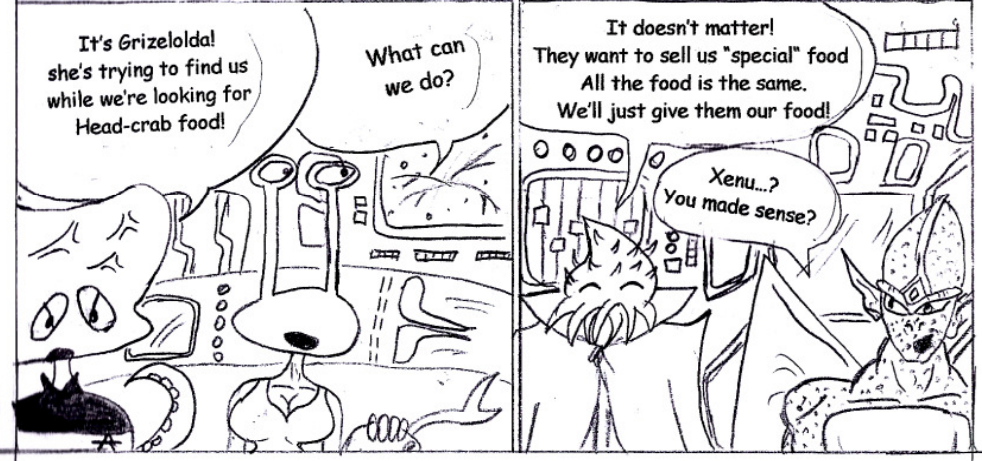

Incoming transmission from the Chan system!

On screen!

they are deranged!!

I don't get it! There's no Head-Crab food in any shop!

It's Grizeloida! she's trying to find us while we're looking for Head-crab food!

What can we do?

It doesn't matter! They want to sell us "special" food All the food is the same. We'll just give them our food!

Xenu...? You made sense?

I gave him any test I could think of! I didn't find any drugs in his body!

I saw his prison files. I didn't find anything about drugs.

But they must have done something! Look at him!

How many roads must a man walk down

Supreme Commander, I got something! It's not a black hole! It's a cloaking device! It's the lulzship!

Proceed!

I'm gonna get a promotion! And you will no-ot!

What's the last thing you remember? Before you went to prison?

control? Torments? Tyranny? Something?

We have to bring Xenoback to himself again. We can't hide from Grizelolda's army forever. He just showed signs that he can think! Maybe we can...

Stop dancing!!!

The answer my friend is blowing in the wind

I was so insecure. I wanted to prove myself. I didn't realize that external things will not change what's inside of me.

If all people would take care of their negative energies instead of killing each other the world would be a better place, we could grow, develop, understand love, accept, be free, be happy....

It's pointless!!!

Look! The nyancats are running away! Something is wrong!

Here, I put a shoe on my head, now will you leave us alone?

Milk the lulz cow!!!

We'll never get out of here!!!!

That was an interesting chase, but it's over! We got you!!

O-Shi-

I've served 15 years on that ship in order to free Xenu and what good has it done for me?

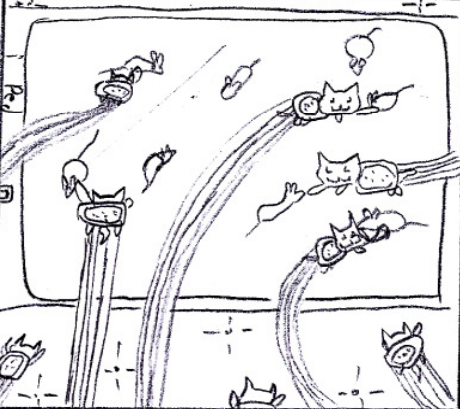

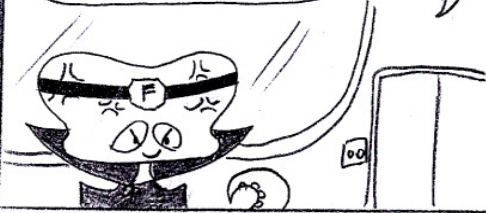

What are all those negative energies? Show me a smile. Come on, just a tinny-winy smile!

Nyancats! ATACK!!!

How famous can the one who killed Xenu get?

No, no, no, my friends, not this time! I'm afraid the Nyancats are busy today! You'll be mine, Lulz! And I'll be promoted by Grizelolda and be able to afford a car!!

Give THAT to Grizelolda! if Xenu was himself he would have scared them to death! We lost the nyancats and Xenu!

He's right! Xenu!! You must turn back in to yourself!

Who are these negative ppl?

HE is right!?

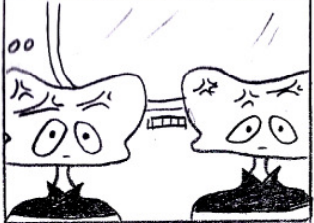

O-oh!

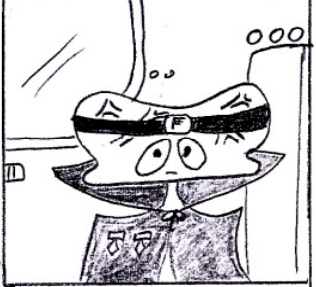

Why are you doing this?

What will it help you to hurt us? Will it make you happy?

I bet you have something else you want to do, but can't.

Why do we have to be enemies? violence won't solve our problems. There's enough room for all of us in space!

Think of all the cute animals, just waiting to be petted by you!

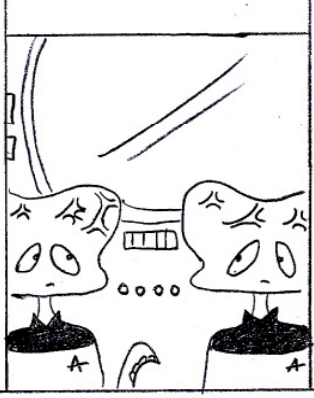

All the beaches that want you to come and rest on them!

You're working so hard for your leader, but what has she ever done for you? Don't you think you deserve moar?

Think of what you're doing now, is that what your inner self wants you to do?

By the end of the day - are you happy?
